

VI EQUALITAS Workshop: “Improving Work and Income for low-income households: drawing lessons from EU unemployment and minimum income schemes”, Madrid June 16th

9:30 Welcome & Introduction

10:00 Olivier Bargain (Aix-Marseille Université): "Quasi-experiments and behavioral models to analyze the effect of social assistance on employment"

11:00 Coffee break

11:30 Carla Krolage (ZEW): “Convergence of Unemployment Benefit Schemes in Europe”

12:30 Alberto Tumino (JRC): “The role of an EMU unemployment insurance scheme on income protection in case of unemployment”

13:30 Lunch

15:30 Sebastian Königs (OECD): “Micro-level dynamics of social assistance receipt”

16:30 Sarah Merchal (Herman Deleeck Centre for Social Policy): “Decent income for the poor: which role for Europe?”

17:30 Presentation of the preliminary results of the project & closing

Luis Ayala (Universidad Rey Juan Carlos) and Elena Bárcena (Universidad de Málaga)

The Workshop will be held at Universidad Rey Juan Carlos (Facultad de Ciencias Jurídicas y Sociales, Campus Vicálvaro). Please confirm attendance to raquel.ucendo@urjc.es

