

International Workshop on

“Income Mobility, Economic Insecurity and Vulnerability for different generations of Europeans”, Alcalá de Henares (Madrid), 24th of November 2017

9:00 Welcome & Introduction

9:15 Paul Gregg (University of Bath) “The Returns to Experience and Promotions for Young Workers when Real Wages Fall”

10:15 Ronald Bachmann (RWI - Leibniz Institute for Economic Research) “Wage Inequality and Wage Mobility in Europe”

11:15 Coffee break

11:45 Sanghamitra Bandyopadhyay (Queen Mary, University of London) “The Vulnerable are not (necessarily) the Poor”

12:45 Philippe Van Kerm (LISER) “Household Income Dynamics in the EU”

13:45 Lunch

15:30 Louis Chauvel (Université du Luxembourg) “Dynamics of Income Rank Volatility: Evidence from Germany and the US”

16:30 Some preliminary results of the “Inequality, Poverty and Equality of Opportunity Project”: Marina Romaguera (Universidad de Alcalá) “Economic Insecurity in Spain: a Multidimensional Analysis”

16:50 End of workshop

17:00 Visit to the Old University of Alcalá buildings

The Workshop will be held at the Universidad de Alcalá (Salón de Actos, CIFF Business School, Plaza de Cervantes, 10).

